

2. Appellee's brief is 34 pages. The record, filed on January 29, 2025, is several hundred pages. Undersigned counsel needs additional time to review appellee's brief, the record and the relevant case law, and draft the People's reply brief. And, once counsel has completed a draft of the brief, it must be reviewed, in accordance with office protocol, by the Chief and a supervisor of the Criminal Appeals Division, as well as the Solicitor General, before filing.

3. In addition, undersigned counsel has had, and will continue to have, substantial responsibilities in a number of other matters, including but not limited to: (i) preparing for oral argument in People v. Smith, No. 130067 (Illinois Supreme Court), anticipated to be in May 2025; (ii) drafting the People's brief in People v. Johnson, No. 130932, due (with one extension) May 9, 2025; (iii) drafting respondent's answer in Hemphill v. Campbell, No. 25 C 1500 (N.D. Ill.), due April 18, 2025; and (v) litigating other cases in the federal courts.

4. This case concerns pretrial detention. The circuit court ordered that defendant be detained pending trial on July 18, 2024. The Illinois Appellate Court reversed that order in a decision issued on November 27, 2024. This Court granted the People leave to appeal that judgment on January 29, 2025.

5. This is the People's first request for an extension of time to file their reply brief. The parties each were granted extensions of 14 days to file their appellant's and appellee's briefs. The People's request for an extension is made in good faith and not for the purpose of mere delay. The undersigned regrets any inconvenience that this request may cause.

WHEREFORE, the People of the State of Illinois respectfully request an extension of 7 days, to and including April 23, 2025, to file its reply brief.

April 7, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

KWAME RAOUL
Attorney General of Illinois
